

OAKLAND, November 16.—Before an altar erected in the living-room of the family home in Van Buren street, the Rev. Charles R. Brown last evening read the service which made Miss Ruth Houghton the bride of Seymour Hall of Honolulu.

The choicest cut flowers and greens converted the room into a beautiful bower for the occasion, white and pink chrysanthemums being combined for the living-room decoration. In the broad hall large baskets of oak boughs and yellow chrysanthemums suggested the autumn season, an added richness being given by the broad yellow satin ribbon bows used in the general scheme.

In the dining-room white chrysanthemums and foliage heightened the effect of the bridesmaid roses which were used for table decorations. The delicate pink of the latter flowers was the color of the gowns of the bridesmaids, Miss Rose Kales and Miss Charlotte Hall leading the party. Their gowns were of pink chiffon made over silk, and each wore a silver band secured with pink roses for a hair ornament. The gown of the first bridesmaid, Miss Florence Henshaw, was of the palest pink chiffon, and like the others, was trimmed with silver. Her bouquet was of pink chrysanthemums and tulips, the other bridesmaids carrying shower bouquets of bridesmaid roses.

As her matrons of honor Miss Houghton had Mrs. William Thornton White and Mrs. Harry Chickering.

Mrs. White's gown was of pink chiffon, woven with steel beads, while Mrs. Chickering wore an elaborate gown of rose pink chiffon over pink satin. Each carried American Beauty roses.

The bride, who entered with her father, wore an elaborate gown of white satin with a princess lace robe draped over it. The neck was finished with duchess lace. Orange blossoms held the long veil in place. The bridal bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Charles Houghton, mother of the bride, was gowned in a heavy white silk, trimmed with rose point.

Philip Hall attended his brother as best man, Thornton White, Ben Reed, Shirley Houghton and Harry Chickering completed the bridal party.

Mr. Hall and his bride will sail next Tuesday for Honolulu, where they are to reside. He is the son of a prominent Island family, but is exceedingly popular here, where he attended the State University. He later attended Harvard University. Mr. Hall is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

His bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Houghton, and is one of the most genuinely popular girls in the exclusive set here.
